

This is a short questionnaire regarding Music videos. To answer the follow questions you must first see short section of the music video "That's What You Get By Paramore".

Under the questions are some of the answers people gave.

What are you're first impression of this film?

Cheaply made, not interesting

Powerful, emotional . Decent

Clearly American ,home made fee , quite raw

low budget

Do you think the video goes with the music style well?

Yes, the style fits the song perfectly complements the music genre

Did you understand the story ?

Yes , Lyrics lead the story

not really

Do you think violence is necessary in music videos ?

No

In this video you see Loads of people drinking and smoking , do you feel this sends out the wrong kind of messages ?

no, It's the artists video they can do what they want , people don't have to follow them.

Nothing wrong but its not good.

This is typical of the genre and appeals to the target audience

It depends on the target audience.

What is your favourite band name out of "two worlds" , "Hella cool" and Shhhhhhabang ?

Hella cool

Shhhhhhabang

Two worlds x2

Do you think a Story is necessary in music videos ?

I Don't thinks it's vital. A narrative often assists a song well, making the video more interesting , but i also enjoy conceptual videos.

no

no but it's better

not really but it makes it more interesting