

Date	Task	Report
5/10/10	Today i will start the planning of my magazine.	I drew out rough designs of what i wanted the layout of my magazine to look like.
12/10/10	To carry on with my magazine layout plan in rough.	I have extended on my rough plans with additional layout ideas and possible titles.
19/10/10	Today i will look at different genres of magazine.	I have studied lots of different genres of magazines and decided on my magazine genre.
26/10/10	Holiday . .	Holiday . .
2/11/10	start to plan my preliminary task.	Took Photos for my starter magazine.
9/11/10	today i will edit my photo's and make sure they are good to use.	I used photoshop to edit my preliminary task photo's.
16/11/10	Start writing up the main content of my beginner magazine.	I chose the colour scheme for my main content and also started roughly writing things.
23/11/10	To continue with my writing up on my preliminary task.	Finished a section and a half of the main content on the school.
30/11/10	I will change the colour scheme to make it more exciting.	changed the colour scheme from yellow and green to pink and blue witch helped the writing stand out more.
7/12/10	Try and finish the rest of the writing i have left to do.	Almost finished the main content.
14/12/10	Finish my preliminary task all together.	I completed my preliminary task.
4/1/11	I will extend my research on magazines and the genre i want to follow.	I have made a pages document on the kerrang magazine and its history.

Date	Task	Report
11/1/11	I will research into NME magazines.	I have made a pages document on the NME magazine and its history.
18/1/11	I will analyse an NME front cover.	I analysed an NME front cover pointing out typical conventions of a magazine.
25/1/11	Start looking on what types of things go into a magazine.	I wrote notes into my books on the kinds of things that are published and written in a popular magazine.
1/2/11	To research different types of technical terms to do with magazines.	I made a pages document on the technical words used in publishing and in the process of making magazines.
8/2/11	Research and write about leading and orphans.	Made a pages document on leading and orphans in the publishing business.
15/2/11	Now i have researched ways of publishing and terms to do with publishing i am going to go back and go through my work.	I have done my best to edit my work and re-do it so it looks better and the layout is better.
22/2/11	I will take photo's for my magazine front cover.	i set up a studio with a camera and used my camera knowledge to take photo's of the school band.
1/3/11	Edit photo's on photo shop and start top create the front cover.	I made the photo's look better and i also chose title and colour scheme aswell as photo's for the cover.
8/3/11	Extend work on magazine front cover.	Positioned photo's on cover and added headline, titles, subheading and smaller photo's.
15/3/11	Start double page spread by using in design.	had a little bit of teaching on in design by teacher to get to learn the basics.

Date	Task	Report
22/3/11	need to choose a good enough picture to use for my double page spread.	I chose my photo for the double page spread and i added to my magazine.
29/3/11	Decide the writing that needs to go on the double page spread. Email Tom (band member) and ask about the bands success.	I emailed tom and have use the information he gave me to gain a rough idea of how much writing is needed and what kind of thing to put.
5/4/11	Write the final paragraph that i will use for the double page spread.	I have completed and spell checked my paragraph ready to put in double page spread.
12/4/11	Make additional changes to my paragraph.	I extended my paragraph to make it better and read over to make sure it all made sense.
19/4/11	Put all of my magazine work into in design as PFD.	Updated all my work and research on the blog and then added magazine cover to blog.
26/4/11	Update blog, finish content page and make sure all work is complete.	I updated my blog, I then changed the whole layout of my content page to make it look better and more appealing, and i have looked on the blog and make sure all work is there and that it is all complete.